

Minutes of Meeting on 12th August 2019

Present: Mike Unwin, Diana Wunderagala, Mary Waldmeyer, Bill White,, Lynn Fletcher, Martin Green, Jennifer Kerridge, Chris and Richard Eddowes

Apologies: Keith Gorton, Martin Green who had to leave early, Irene Green

Minutes of the last meeting were agreed.

Matters arising:

- The Traidcraft Coffee morning had happened.
- Richard reported on his trip to the Climate Change Lobby of Parliament.
- Accounts. Chris queried if the cheque to JDC had been cashed as the invitation to renew had arrived again. (Subsequently, Irene confirmed it had)
- The Global Strike. As we are all retired, there were questions about what we could do.

Climate Change Evening. Arrangements have been made. It will be at 7pm on 17th September at West View Baptists Church. David will speak and introduce the film clips. Lynn had produced a flyer which is to be sent round all the churches. Chris will contact the Mail and Hartlepool Life.

Fairtrade. Martin has received the Fairtrade Town renewal certificate. There will be a photo taken by the Council's Publicity Department. Members were invited to be present.

Traidcraft Celebration. Jenny Medhurst had arranged a celebration evening at St Peter's Church Yarm Rd, Stockton from 7pm. Members who help in the Christmas shop have already been invited.

AOB Lynn hadn't got the details to hand for the pre-Great North Run meeting but later sent the details she has so far- Sarah-Jayne Clifton (JDC) will speak on UK household debt. Gareth Davies-Jones (Christian musician) may sing. Jamie Driscoll, Mayor of North of Tyne, has been invited to chair.

Next Meeting 7.30pm on 9th September
